THE [Numb. 856.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the lateſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, October 1, 1761.

NEW-YORK, September 21.

SATURDAY Morning laſt the PITT Packet Boat, Captain GODDARD, arrived here with the July Mail from FALMOUTH, which ſhe left the 18th of that Month, having had Nine Weeks Paſſage. By her we have the following freſh Advices, viz.

VIENNA (Capital of Germany) June 24.

ACCORDING to the laſt Diſpatches from Marſhal Daun, the Head-Quarters of his Army were ſtill in the new Town of Dreſden. As to General Laudohn, he was yet encamped at Hauptmanſdorff on the 20th, but was making Diſpoſitions to re-enter Sileſia, and ſtrike ſome great Blow with the Help of the Ruſſian Reinforcement that is on the Point of joining him.

Frankfort, on the Oder, June 25. The King having received undoubted Intelligence, that the Ruſſians, after reſting two or three Days in their Camp near Poſnania, had reſumed their March forward, he reſolved to detach ſeveral Battalions and Squadrons from his Army, in order to reinforce General Goltze, againſt whoſe Corps, it appears, the Enemy intend to make their chief Efforts.

Warſaw, June 15. An Eſtimate of the Damage done to the Electorate of Saxony during the preſent War, is now drawing out, in order to lay before the Congreſs of Augſbourg, in Hopes of obtaining ſome Satisfaction.

Eimbeck, in the Principality of Grubenhagen, June 22. Prince Ferdinand apprehending that M. Broglio intended to march with the greateſt Part of his Forces towards the Weſer, and attempt to paſs it, has ſent Orders to General Luckner, who was at this Place with his Troops, to march with all Expedition to Uſlar, to diſpute the Paſſage with them.

Vienna, June 25. The Ruſſians have haſtened their March ſo much, that all the different Columns of their Army arrived the 13th and 14th at Poſen, from whence each will march to its Deſtination, after halting a few Days.

Leipſic, June 20. The Head-Quarters of the Army of the Empire are at Zuickau. It is thought that it may join the left Wing of M. Daun's Army; and if this Corps ſhould be joined by the French and Saxon Regiments, which were arrived on the 18th at Eyſenach, Prince Henry's preſent Poſition will ſcarce be tenable.

Hamburgh, June 26. They write from Hanover, that they have received Advice there from London, that his Britannic Majeſty is determined to pay all his Grandfather's Debts in that Electorate, which, together with the Arrears, may amount to 500,000 Rix-Dollars, one Third of which is going to be paid directly.

Cologn, June 26. Soubiſe's Army is compoſed of 70,200 Foot, 11,340 Horſe, 3000 Dragoons, and 3600 Light Troops; in all, 88,140 effective Men [on Paper] beſides Engineers and the Train. It is followed by 120 Pieces of battering Cannon, and 500 Waggons of Biſcuits, that the Soldiers may not be ſtraitened for Want of Subſiſtance.

Hague, June 30. The laſt Letters from Weſtphalia, dated the 26th Inſtant, bring an Account, that Prince Ferdinand hath removed his Head-Quarters from Geſeke to Soeſt, and that the Prince his Nephew, who for ſome Days paſt was poſted at Ham, was advanced to Dunkaren, in order to be ready to join Prince Ferdinand, if it ſhould be neceſſary.

Port l'Orient, June 17. The Engliſh Squadron which reduced Belleiſle now forms three Diviſions, one of which, conſiſting of ten Ships of War, is before Breſt, another before Rochefort, and the third before Port Louis. Some Engliſh Ships have alſo appeared before Dunkirk and Havre de Grace; and we at Port l'Orient are as much threatened as any. The Engliſh may ſucceed againſt the Iſland of Oleron more eaſily than at Belleiſle; but St. Cas will be a Warning to them not to meddle with our Continent. As for the Reſt, they may do what they pleaſe on the Ocean, we ſhall take our Revenge at Hanover.

For the Security of Port l'Orient, M. de Marbeuf is ordered to repair with 3000 Men, to the Iſle of Grouais, which covers our Harbour.

Hague, June 30. We have received the following Particulars of Major Scheiter's late ſucceſsful Expedition. He croſſed the Rhine at Biſlick, with 36 Horſes, and burnt the French Magazines at Xarten which conſiſted of about 35,000 Rations of Hay and Straw, and 1400 Sacks of Oats. From thence he went to Soufbeck, and paſſed by Guelderen and Stralden, in his Way to Kakirchen and Ruremonde; but learning that Ruremonde was poſſeſſed by Auſtrian Troops, he went to Aerſen, where he burnt a very great Magazine of Hay and Straw, which at a moderate Computation, conſiſted, at leaſt, of a Million and a Half of Rations; and two Boats, having on board 4000 Sacks of Oats, which he caſt into the Maas. Near Geldern he met 100 Carts with Forage, which he cauſed to be unloaded and burnt. From Aerſen he took the Route of Gennep, and burnt the Magazine there, conſiſting of 100,000 Rations of Hay and Straw; and ſome Thouſand Rations of Oats. In this Tour he made 16 Priſoners, whom he took along with him, beſides a Serjeant and 18 Auſtrians, and 40 French Boatmen, whom, not being able to take with him, he left to the Magiſtrates of Stralen and Aerſen, till his Return. He afterwards burnt four double Boats with Forage, and croſſed the Rhine again at Loburg.

At Buderick there was a Regiment of French Cavalry with ſlandered Horſes; they detached 150 Horſemen after him. Two Hundred Foot were ſent after him, in three Detachments, from Weſel; but he happily eſcaped them. At Bockholt, a ſtrong Party waited for him in his Return; but he made his Retreat, and eſcaped from them too.

He performed all this in 93 Hours Time.

By Letters from Weſtphalia we underſtand, that Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters were on the 26th at Soeſt, where his Highneſs had aſſembled his whole Army. The Prince of Soubiſe, who had marched by Bockum, and Dortmund, to Unna, was at the laſt of thoſe Places on the 26th, when the two Armies were within a Day's March of each other. Marſhal Broglio too was in Motion.

Every Thing continued in the ſame State in Saxony on the 23d Inſtant; and in Sileſia on the 18th.

Minden, July 1. The French, to the Number of 40,000 Men, having made Diſpoſitions for attacking, on different Sides, the Corps commanded by General Sporcken, near Warbourg, which was not above 12000 ſtrong, the latter was obliged to give Way to ſuperior Numbers: He directed his March to Reeſen, and from thence to Steinhiem, where he yet encamps. The French continue to advance. In the Skirmiſhes between the Light Troops of both Sides, the Allies made 70 Priſoners. Stockhauſen's Corps, and the Regiment of Behr, have loſt Part of their Baggage: The former encamps at Holzminden, covering the Magazine of Hoxter, which the Enemy have already fruitleſsly attacked.

Neus, July 3. A Courier informs us, that Soubiſe's Army lay upon their Arms for three Days, expecting the Allies would attack them: But on the firſt Inſtant the Scene changed. The Allies received a Courier that Day, with Advice that the French had made themſelves Maſters of Warbourg, upon which they retreated. Soubiſe's Army is marching to Lipſtadt, and Marſhal Broglio's Army, which by the Conqueſt of Warbourg hath recovered the Key of the Country of Paderborn, will endeavour to get to the Weſer before the Enemy. We hourly expect the Conſequences of this Event.

Clevet, July 3. According to the laſt Advices from the Army under the Command of the Marſhal Prince de Soubiſe, the Army of the Allies came to Werle the 27th of laſt Month, and encamped there: The next Day this Army moved in ſeveral Columns, one of which, conſiſting of between 4 and 5000 Men, paſſed the Roer. The 29th, Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, and his Nephew the Hereditary Prince, ſpent good Part of the Day in viewing the French Army in the Neighbourhood of Unna; but finding it drawn up in Order of Battle, and in a Poſition too advantageous to be ſucceſsfully attacked, they reſolved to draw off their Troops towards Hamm. Theſe Advices add, that as the French look on this Retreat as a Stratagem calculated to make them quit the advantageous Poſt they occupy, they keep a ſtricter Watch than before, and are preparing to give the Allies a warm Reception, in Caſe the latter may pay them a Viſit.

Bruſſels, July 5. This Morning we received Advice, that the Army commanded by Marſhal Broglio, having paſſed the Dymel the 29th of laſt Month, General Sporcken, who was encamped on the Eminences on the Left Side of that River, came to a Reſolution to quit that advantageous Poſt; but though he made his Retreat with all poſſible Celerity, the French came up with his rear Guard, and preſſed upon it ſo vigorouſly, that they made about 800 Priſoners, and alſo carried off 19 Pieces of Cannon, 400 Horſes, and 170 Carts and Waggons.

Frankfort, July 6. Letters from Bohemia adviſe, that a Body of 25,000 Ruſſians have joined the Body of Auſtrians commanded by the Count de Bethlem in Upper Sileſia.

Gros Glogau, July 5. On the 26th paſt, purſuant to an Order from the King to General Goltze, our Governor publiſhed by Sound of Trumpet and Kettle Drum, the News of the Concluſion of an offenſive and defenſive Alliance between his Pruſſian Majeſty and the Ottoman Porte.

Hague, July 9. Our laſt Advices from the Allied Army are dated the 5th Inſtant and import, that Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick, who after effecting his Junction with the Body of Troops under the Command of his Nephew the Hereditary Prince, had already made Part of the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for giving a proper Reception to the Army of the Marſhal Prince de Soubiſe, whom he ſuppoſed would come to attack him, and to this End remained 48 Hours in Order of Battle at the Head of his Camp, found himſelf under a Neceſſity, on Account of the Movements of Broglio's Army, to repaſs the River Lippe the firſt Inſt. in the Night.

Paris, July 3. The Public here talk but little about the Negotiations of Mr. Buſſy and Mr. Stanley. They perceive there is no Good to be hoped from them, unleſs the Succeſs of our Arms in Germany make the Engliſh change their Note, by entirely changing the Situation of their Affairs on the Continent; and we may, without Preſumption, expect from our two Armies this favourable Change. By our Land Forces we have nearly the ſame Superiority over our Enemies that they have over us at Sea; but with this Difference on our Side, that our Troops can act with more Advantage againſt Hanover than their Ships againſt our Coaſts. Since the taking of Belleiſle, they can do nothing but what they uſed to do before: They only cruize about, or lie upon our Coaſts.

FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE.

St. James's, July 8. The King in Council was this Day pleaſed to appoint Tueſday the 22d Day of September next, for ſolemnizing his Coronation; and to order, that a Proclamation ſhould be iſſued for notifying the ſame; as alſo for notifying, that his Majeſty hath ordered a Commiſſion to be paſſed under the Great Seal, conſtituting a Court of Claims, which Court is to hold their firſt Meeting in the Painted Chamber of his Majeſty's Palace at Weſtminſter, on Tueſday the 21ſt Day of this Inſtant July.

LONDON, June 30.

It is now reported that the ſecond Expedition is ſtopped.

The Harriot Packet Boat, Brailey, is arrived at Falmouth, from New-York.

In the Amſterdam Gazette, brought by this Day's Mail, to Town, we have a diſagreeable Detail of the taking of all the Engliſh Forts on the Coaſts of Sumatra, by the Conde and Expedition Frigates, under the Command of the Count d'Eſtain, Brigadier in the French King's Service.

The little Town of Kindlebruck in Saxony, was almoſt entirely reduced to Aſhes on the 9th Inſtant, by the Careleſſneſs of a Valet, who had ſet Fire there to a Barn. Out of 250 Houſes, of which it was compoſed, 30 only are now in Being. No Lives, however, have been loſt.

Letters from Oporto aſſure us, that on the 6th of this Inſtant, the Inhabitants were much terrified with a violent Shock of an Earthquake, which ſhook down many Houſes, and killed ſome of the Inhabitants.

Laſt Saturday was determined by the Lords Commiſſioners of Prize Cauſes, the ſeveral Appeals depending upon the Engliſh Ships from Monti Chriſto, taken by our Men of War, and condemned at Gibraltar, when their Lordſhips reverſed the Sentences of that Vice Admiralty Court, and ordered Reſtitution of Ships and Cargoes to the Appellants.

July 4. We hear that all the Tranſports in the River are ordered round to Portſmouth with the utmoſt Expedition.

This Morning died in the 72d Year of his Age, at his Houſe in Saliſbury Court, Fleet Street, Mr. Samuel Richardſon, an eminent Printer, and the celebrated Author of the Hiſtories of Pamela, Clariſſa, and Sir Charles Grandiſon.

July 7. They write from Portſmouth, that greater Expedition was never uſed in fitting out a Fleet of Ships than has been in fitting out the preſent, which waits only for ſailing Orders.

July 9. We hear the Orders iſſued ſome Time ago for raiſing ſome Independent Companies of Foot, have, within theſe few Days, been countermanded.

From the LONDON GAZETTE Extraordinary.

At a Court at St. James's, July 8, 1761.

PRESENT,

The KING's Moſt Excellent MAJESTY.

His Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, Archbiſhop of Canterbury, Lord Chancellor, Lord Preſident, Lord Privy Seal, Lord Chamberlain, Duke of Bolton, Duke of Leeds, Duke of Bedford, Duke of Rutland, Duke of Queenſberry, Lord Great Chamberlain, Duke of Newcaſtle, Lord Steward, Earl of Huntingdon, Earl of Winchelſea, Earl of Sandwich, Earl of Shafteſbury, Earl of Holderneſſe, Earl of Rochford, Earl of Albemarle, Earl of Godolphin, Earl of Cholmondeley, Earl of Kinnoul, Earl of Bute, Earl of Halifax, Earl of Waldegrave, Earl of Bath, Earl of Buckinghamſhire, Earl of Powis, Earl of Harcourt, Earl Cornwallis, Earl of Hardwicke, Earl of Egmont, Earl of Thomond, Viſcount Falmouth, Viſcount Barrington, Viſcount Bateman, Viſcount Ligonier, Viſcount Royſton, Lord Berkeley of Stratton, Lord Sandys, Lord Anſon, Lord Lyttleton, Lord Melcombe, Lord Grantham, Mr. Vice Chamberlain, Henry Legge, Eſq; George Grenville, Eſq; James Grenville, Eſq; Mr. Secretary Pitt, Lord Chief Juſtice Willes, Maſter of the Rolls, Henry Fox, Eſq; Charles Townſhend, Eſq; Robert Nugent, Eſq; Wellibore Ellis, Eſq; Sir Francis Daſhwood.

His Majeſty being this Day preſent in Council, was pleaſed to make the following Declaration, viz.

'HAVING nothing ſo much at Heart, as to procure 'the Welfare and Happineſs of my People, and to 'render the ſame ſtable and permanent to Poſterity, I have, 'ever ſince my Acceſſion to the Throne, turned my Thoughts 'towards the Choice of a Princeſs for my Conſort; and I 'now, with great Satisfaction, acquaint you, that, after 'the fulleſt Information, and mature Deliberation, I am 'come to a Reſolution to demand in Marriage the Princeſs 'Charlotte of Mecklenburgh Strelitz; a Princeſs diſtinguiſhed by every eminent Virtue, and amiable Endowment; 'whoſe illuſtrious Line has conſtantly ſhewn the firmeſt 'Zeal for the Proteſtant Religion, and a particular Attachment to my Family. I have judged proper to communicate to you theſe my Intentions, in order that you may be 'fully appriſed of a Matter ſo highly important to me, and 'to my Kingdoms; and which, I perſuade myſelf, will be 'moſt acceptable to all my loving Subjects.'

Whereupon all the Privy-Counſellors preſent, made it their humble Requeſt to His Majeſty, that this His Majeſty's moſt gracious Declaration to them might be made public; which His Majeſty was pleaſed to order accordingly.

W. SHARPE.

The Princeſs Sophia Charlotte of Mecklenburgh Strelitz was 17 on the 16th of May laſt. Her eldeſt Brother, the reigning Duke, unmarried, was born May 5, 1738, and ſucceeded to the Eſtate in Decem. 1752. Another Brother, Charles Frederick, aged 20, is a Major in the Hanoverian Service; a third Brother, Erneſt Gottlob Arbert, is 19 the 2d of next Month. George Auguſtus, her youngeſt Brother, will be 13 the 16th of next Month. Her Siſter, Princeſs Chriſtiana Sophia Albertaina, will be 26 the 6th of December. Her Mother, Dowager of Duke Charles Lewis Frederick (who died May 4, 1752) is a Daughter of Duke Erneſt Frederick of Saxe-Hildbourghauſen, and was born in 1713.

The House of Mecklenburgh (which is derived from the Vandal Princes, who, joining with the Goths, struck Terror heretofore into the Roman Eagles, and carried their victorious Arms into Italy, Gaul and Spain) is divided into two Branches, the Descendants of Albeat and John, Sons of Henry Leo, Prince of the Vandals, who reigned in the Beginning of the 13th Century; and were received into the Number of the Estates of the Empire, where they have Seats in the College of Princes, by Charles IV. who began his Reign in 1347. They are distinguished by the Titles of Mecklenburgh-Schwerin, and Mecklenburgh-Strelitz, which they take from the Cities of their Residence. The Princes of this House were dispossessed of their Estates in the Beginning of the last Century, by the Emperor, who gave them to Wallestein a Silesian (who came to a miserable End) but replaced in 1631, by the victorious Arms of their Cousin-german, the Great Gustavus of Sweden. Their Country, which is about 100 Miles long, and 60 broad, lies in the Circle of Lower Saxony. It hath Holstein and Saxe-Launenbourg on the West, the Baltic Sea on the North, Pomerania on the East, and Brandenburgh on the South. A German, who wrote in the last Century, remarks that the House of Mecklenburgh had had in Marriage, within less than 200 Years, six Daughters of Kings, and five of Electors. It is the Duke of Mecklenburgh-Schwerin whose Country is now smarting for his favouring the Enemies of Prussia.

LONDON.

July 10. We hear that in the Draught of the new Treaty of Peace between England and France, what Lands are to be understood by Canada and Louisiana, are pointed out in a most clear and precise Manner, by their Latitude and Longitude from Points, and not left to be determined afterwards, as the French shall think proper; but we find that this Precaution was not thought of in the Negociations at Utrecht, which Neglect occasioned all the Altercation and Bloodshed that hath since happened on Account of America.

Some private Letters from Paris import, that the Court having great Expectations of a speedy Visit from the British second Expedition Fleet on their Coast, had ordered all the Forces they could spare at this Time, to the several Ports and Places the most defenceless.

It is now pretty confidently said, that the principal Difference remaining to be adjusted between our Court and that of France, is, that the latter is labouring to make a separate Peace with Great-Britain, whilst our Court thinks it would be better to make a general one, and by that Means put a Stop to the Effusion of Christian Blood, which too probably will not be effected by a separate Peace.

It is said, that the Preliminaries for setting on Foot a Treaty of Peace at Augsbourg, between the several Powers at War, having been transmitted hither, the same are now under Consideration, so that it is expected a definitive Resolution will be taken in a few Days.

Vast Preparations are making for the Earl of Egremont's Appearance at the Congress. It is said he will be attended by Noblemen and other Persons of Distinction, to the Number of 200, on his Entrance into the City of Augsbourg.

Yesterday there was a numerous Court at St. James's, amongst which were several of the foreign Ministers, to compliment his Majesty on his intended Marriage.

The Yacht which sailed a few Weeks since, from Deptford, and brought over M. Boreel to England from Holland, it is said carried two Persons of Rank to Hamburgh, from whence they proceeded to Mecklenburgh, to execute a Commission of great Importance, the Result of which may now be easily guessed at.

We are now told, that the Marriage of His Majesty is to be on the 6th of September, and the Coronation on the 22d of the same Month.

July 11. By Letters from Belleisle we learn, that Commodore Keppel had received Advice, that 8 French Men of War and Frigates were at Rochfort, endeavouring to put to Sea; but that he had stationed his Fleet in such a Manner, as would prevent their Junction with those at Brest; when joined they were to sail to Martinico, for the Security of that Island.

It is said that the Solebay and Biddeford Men of War have fallen in with a Fleet of Prames, or flat-bottomed Boats, going from Dunkirk to Boulogne, some of which they took, and drove the rest ashore at Graveling. The French had 66 Men killed, and about as many wounded, with little or no Loss on our Side.

On Thursday the Earl of Harcourt waited on the King at St. James's, when, we hear, his Majesty was pleased to nominate his Lordship to conduct the Princess of Mecklenburgh Strelitz to England; and at the same Time to appoint him Master of the Horse to that Princess.

By a Letter from on board one of his Majesty's Ships off Brest, dated the Beginning of this Month, we are informed, that there are in Brest Water six Line of Battle Ships and three Frigates, apparently ready to sail; and that we have ten Ships of the Line and some Frigates, watching their Motions.

Extract of a Letter from Portsmouth, June 30.

"Last Thursday Night we had the most dreadful Storm of Thunder, Lightning, and Rain, that has been known in the Memory of the oldest Man living. The Waters from the Suddenness of the Rain, rose near two Feet perpendicular above the Level of the Shops, so that we were under Water several Hours, and suffered considerable Damage.

"On Monday 50 Convicts taken by a French Privateer, on their Passage to America, and retaken by his Majesty's Ship Wager, were landed here, and being put into Waggons, set out for London, escorted by a strong Guard.

"We hear that three Ships of the Line are sailed from Belleisle, to join Lord Colvill at Halifax."

July 14. The freshest Advices from Frankfort continue to assert, that the French in Germany have three great Points in View. The first to deliver the Bishoprick, in order to proceed to an Election, and to render Paderborn a Place of Arms; the Second, to penetrate into the Electorate of Hanover; and the Third, to march 40,000 Men into the Principality of Halberstadt, to convince the Imperialists, that they are ready to concur in the utter Destruction of the King of Prussia.

Letters from Rochelle of the 6th past, advise, that on the 3d an English Fleet of 6 Ships, 3 Frigates, and 4 other Ships, anchored within Cannon-shot of the Isle of Aix; that they were employed in sounding in the Neighbourhood of Rochelle, and the Isles of Rhee and Oleron; that on the 5th a Dutch Ship left Rochelle, the Pilot of whom was examined by the English: At his Return he informed the Rochellers of their Strength, and that besides the Ships above-mentioned, three more were stationed beyond the Isle of Rhee; and they conclude with telling us, that they have in that Island six Battalions under the Chevalier d'Aulan, on whose Bravery and Prudence they can depend.

A Letter from Munster, dated the 4th, mentions positively an Action between the Conjunct Army of the Allies and that of Prince Soubise, to the Advantage of the former, who are said to have made 1420 French Prisoners on the Field of Battle.

His Prussian Majesty is at present encamped in the Mountains, in order to have it the more in his Power to reinforce his Armies on the Frontiers of Poland in Pomerania and on the Marche of Brandenburgh; as a Delay of any thing decisive, for three Weeks, will, in the Opinion of the ablest Politicians, extricate his Majesty from most of his Difficulties, and turn them perhaps upon his hitherto implacable Enemies.

The Carolina Yacht fell down the River this Day, or was expected so to do, to receive some grand Personages on board, going to the Court of Mecklenburgh: It is said this will be followed in a Day or two by the Fubbs Yacht, and that they will stop in the Downs.

The young Count de Bruhl and M. Cauterbach, Plenipotentiaries from the King of Poland, set out the 7th Inst. from the Hague for the Congress at Augsbourg.

It is said that the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Harcourt is to be with the Princess of Mecklenburgh on the 1st of August at farthest, and that he is to stay there two or three Days, and then set off with her Highness for England; after which the Marriage will be celebrated as soon as her Highness's Cloaths can be made.

Apartments, we hear, are ordered to be got ready in his Majesty's House at Greenwich, for the Reception of the Princess upon her Arrival in England, till the Solemnization of the Matrimonial Rites.

A Letter from Ramsgate, dated July 11, says, "We just now hear that two of our Cutters from the Downs, which were looking after the Enemy on the French Coast, fell in with a French Frigate, who sunk one of them and all the Crew were lost; the other has got safe back again."

Yesterday the Heralds and Pursuivants at Arms, preceded by the King's Marshals Men, the Drums and Trumpets of his Majesty's Household, and a great Number of Constables, made Proclamation at Westminster, Temple-Bar, and the Royal Exchange, that the King's Coronation would be solemnized the 22d of September next.

Since our Conquest of Canada, we are, in a great Measure, become the Furriers of Europe: And we can assure the Public, that large Commissions are sent here from Flanders for Beaver, and various other Skins, to supply France, and other Parts, and that we even export this Produce of North-America to Russia, as that Country consumes more of some Kind of Skins, and of better Quality than itself affords.

Lord Stormont, late British Minister at the Court of Warsaw, passed through Prague the 26th past, going as one of our Plenipotentiaries to the Congress at Augsbourg.

The Rt. Hon. Sir Joseph Yorke arrived here Yesterday from the Hague. We hear he will return back to Holland in a few Days, and proceed immediately from thence for the Congress at Augsbourg.

They write from Hamburgh of the 7th Inst. that Count Peper, Messr. Gyllenburg de Nolchen, de Klenckaustrom, and Secretary Eckman, passed through that Place from Stockholm, Plenipotentiaries from the Court of Sweden to the Congress at Augsbourg.

A Gentleman who was till lately an Inhabitant of Rostock, in the Dukedom of Mecklenburgh, informs us, that the Princess Charlotte, our intended Queen, whom he has often seen, is a Princess greatly esteemed there for Piety and exemplary Humanity and Benevolence: Her Person graceful and handsome, between the two Extremes of Tallness and its contrary; of a very pleasing Mein, grave and grand Deportment, intermixed with much unaffected Affability and Composure of Mind:—A proper Match for so graceful, good, and great a Monarch, as the British King, GEORGE THE THIRD.

BOSTON, September 14.

On Saturday last three Men passed through this Town on their Way to Newbury, and inform, that they lately belonged to a Vessel commanded by Capt. Nicholas Tracy, of that Place, but were taken on their Passage to the West-Indies, in Latitude 23, by a French Privateer Sloop of about 70 Tons, Bermuda built, and an extraordinary Sailer, of 10 Carriage Guns, 3 and 4 Pounders, and 120 Men; that they were taken 5 Days after the Privateer sailed from Martinico, who a few Days after also took a Vessel of and for Rhode-Island from Teneriffe, in Latitude 37. She also brought to a Vessel bound to New-York, that had been taken and ransomed, but on the Captain's producing the Ransom Bill, she was dismissed, after having the above Men, and a Number of Prisoners, put on board her. This Privateer was seen by the above Men Yesterday se'nnight, off Long-Island, and were designed for Egg-Harbour to Water, as they were in great want thereof. There were several Pilots on board the Privateer who were well acquainted with the Coast, and intended to cruize there for some Time.

NEW-YORK, September 21.

Part of a Letter from London, dated July 14.

"Peace is in every Body's Mouth; but such "Preparations for War were never made before."

The Harriot Snow Packet Boat may be looked for in about a Week or a Fortnight, with the August Mail, when, in all Probability, we shall have our Doubts cleared up with Regard to Peace or War.

We can assure the Public, that the famous Monsieur Chatteleau, who formerly scoured the Coast of North-America, sailed from Cape-Francois in the Month of August last, for Old France, with his Wife and Family, in a small Marblehead Schooner, without a Gun, loaded with Coffee and Indigo.

PHILADELPHIA, September 24.

Saturday last arrived here the Ship Nancy, Capt. Rooke, from Barbados. On the 10th Instant Captain Rooke spoke with Capt. How, from Glasgow for Virginia, who had been out five Weeks that Day, and informed him there was no Prospect of a Peace.

By Capt. Saunders from Faro we have Advice, that Capt. Porter, in an English 80 Gun Ship, had blocked up in Cadiz, for five Weeks, two French Men of War, viz. the Achilles, of 64 Guns, and the Buffoon, of 36: That at last they escaped, and, after being out about 12 Days, fell in with two English Men of War about the 16th of July, who sunk the Buffoon, and took the Achilles, and carried her into Gibraltar.

The Ship Brothers, Capt. Blair, belonging to this Port, bound from Jamaica to London, was taken on her Passage, and ransomed for 4000 l. Sterling.

Extract of a Letter from Charles-Town, in South-Carolina, dated Sept. 5.

"On the 28th ult. the Cherokee Headmen and Warriors arrived at Col. Grant's Head-Quarters, and we look daily for Accounts of a Peace, which is ardently wished for by all.——The Country is greatly exhausted, and most of the Back Settlements deserted, which a Peace will soon re-settle. The North-Carolina Forces are arrived at Salisbury, in Rowan County, in order to join Col. Byrd."

ANNAPOLIS, October 1.

Saturday last his Excellency our Governor was pleased to Issue his Proclamation Dissolving the General Assembly of this Province.

And the same Day Writs were Issued for Calling a New One, to meet here on Tuesday the 17th of November.

We are informed, by a Schooner from Virginia, That the Man of War, with the Convoy under his Care, were not sail'd from thence on Saturday last, the Winds having been unfavourable ever since the 20th of the Month, and, 'tis thought, they are not yet sail'd.

Saturday the 10th of this Instant, is appointed for the Election of Two Representatives for this City.
